How to Apply

Online applications to audition are now open and due by February 19, 2020. Visit the AACPS website, click on “Academics,” and then “Music,” “Enrichment Experiences,” & “Summer Camps” for application and audition directions. If you aren’t able to complete the application online, we accept walk-in auditions.

How to Audition

All music applicants are required to audition on either Tuesday, February 18, or Wednesday, February 19 (weather dates: Feb. 25 & 26). On the day of the audition students will report to the sign-in tables in the lobby and cafeteria at George Fox Middle School. The ten-minute audition consists of prepared selections (pdfs are located at the website above) scales and brief sight-reading examples. The audition score is based on a rubric that includes technique, correct notes, tempo, phrasing, interpretation and tone quality.

Camp Cost

The cost per camper is $550, due in full by May 29, 2020, which includes all meals, highly qualified instructors to provide around the clock supervision, the assistance of trained NorthBay staff to run the outdoor recreational activities, and cabin maintenance. A limited number of financial assistance scholarships are available. Please indicate on your audition application if you would like to apply for financial assistance. The information you provide is used to determine the amount of assistance.
